Course/Module description:

In this course we will read from India's classical narratives and tales. More specifically, we will read the amazing tale of Sānudaśa (a kind of South Asian Sinbad), from Buddhaśvāmin's famous "The Abridged Version of the Great Story."

Course/Module aims:

The course has two main goals. First, to impart the students with a quick and smooth technique of reading Sanskrit. Second, to familiarize the students with Sanskrit narrative and the kathā genre and some of its typical characters, including merchants, sailors, amazingly beautiful women, and gigantic sea monsters (partial list).

Learning outcomes - On successful completion of this module, students should be able to:

To read smoothly and quickly a Sanskrit text of medium difficulty, to become familiar with fables and tales as a major component of Sanskrit literature.
