Course/Module description:

The course would seek to provide students an understanding of Palestinian society and education under the Ottoman Empire and the British Mandate. Students will learn about the impact of Israel's establishment on Palestinian society, in particular the formation of the Palestinian Israeli education system as a separate entity in Israel. Students will evaluate the educational system and historical narratives used in schools and the use of education as a means of advancement or control. Students will learn the main challenges for education and the internal dynamic among Palestinian Israelis regarding culture, religion, and language. Students will learn about the status of Palestinian Israeli teachers as an agent of change or control. Students will gain a view of women in Palestinian society and the education system. Finally, students will discuss whether or not Palestinian Israeli education in Israel addresses the multi-cultural and multi-religious challenges of the people.
