

The Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Syllabus

Accounting Information Systems - 55431

Last update 16-10-2019

HU Credits: 3

Degree/Cycle: 1st degree (Bachelor)

Responsible Department: Accounting

Academic year: 0

Semester: 1st Semester

Teaching Languages: Hebrew

Campus: Mt. Scopus

Course/Module Coordinator: Eyal Assayag

Coordinator Email: eyal.assayag@gmail.com

Coordinator Office Hours:

Teaching Staff:

alon cohen

Course/Module description:

The Information Technology for accountants includes most computer issues that accountants are required to understand when formulating audit programs and their implementation, including information technology risks inherent in the information systems and their impact on the financial statements.

Course/Module aims:

Acquiring of basic information technology, including hardware, software, communications and databases. The course lists all the technological aspects of information systems, which are used in business

Learning outcomes - On successful completion of this module, students should be able to:

Achieving the necessary understanding under the provisions of the Council of Certified Public Accountants

Attendance requirements(%):

Teaching arrangement and method of instruction: Frontal lessons

Course/Module Content:

General principles of information technology and strategic information
Enterprise information systems
And support decision-making and work processes in the organization and types of information systems applications.
Development and implementation of information technology.
IT infrastructure

Required Reading:

As in the Hebrew text

Additional Reading Material:

As in the Hebrew text

Course/Module evaluation:

End of year written/oral examination 100 %

Presentation 0 %

Participation in Tutorials 0 %

Project work 0 %

Assignments 0 %

Reports 0 %

Research project 0 %

Quizzes 0 %

Other 0 %

Additional information: