Course/Module description:

The Zionist Ideology was a strong enough force to revolutionize not only the lives of individuals, but also in the collective life of the Jewish people. It was able to create a modern national identity and finally a nation-state. In the decades that followed, however, its values have shifted dramatically, from a highly collective ideology to radical individualism. The course will follow this change from the roots of the Zionist till the age of privatization and Post-Zionism.
