Course/Module description:

This intensive course focuses on the triangular relationship and interactions between international law, global governance and the European Union (EU). It comprises seven sessions in which the following themes will be discussed:

- 1) Tales of coexistence, cooperation, integration and globalization: from international law to the EU and global governance, and back*
 - 2) Revisiting the basic tenets of international law in times of confusion*
 - 3) De-composing global governance: organizations, networks, markets*
 - 4) De-composing global governance: democracy, legitimacy, accountability*
 - 5) The EU as an experiment: where we come from*
 - 6) The EU as an experiment: where we are going in a crisis-ridden Europe*
- How can, does and should the EU contribute to “good global governance” and “the strict observance and the development of international law”?*
