Course/Module description:

Together with his contribution to Western philosophy particularly in the field of Ethics, Emmanuel Levinas is considered one of the most significant Jewish thinkers of the second half of the 20th Century. He was also significantly engaged in Jewish life and Jewish education in France. The course is concerned with Levinas's understanding of Jewish education. Among the topics covered are: the educational significance of his ethics; the educational implications of his Talmudic Readings; the significance of his writings on Jewish education; his importance for the general philosophy of education.

Course/Module aims:

- A basic familiarity with Levinas's general philosophical approach.
- An understanding of Levinas's approach to Judaism.
- An understanding of Levinas's life's work and thought against the background of his biography and context.
- A familiarity with Levinas's method as an interpreter of the Talmud.
- To develop a critical appreciation of Levinas's ideas and their current relevance.

Learning outcomes - On successful completion of this module, students should be able to:

- An ability to approach in a critical manner the relevant philosophical ideas.
- An ability to read with understanding Levinas's writings on Judaism and Jewish education.
